Stood Up for His City. A small Chicago boy, visiting his uncle in a country town, was asked if there were as many people there as there were in Chicago. Whereupon he said with all the pride of his seven years: "Why, we have more people in jail in Chicago than you have in the whole town."

Have Color in Your Cheeks

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets.

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after-effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of doctors are sold annually at 10¢ and 25¢ per box. All druggists.

Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, Ohio.

CALOMEL SALIVATES

Calomel makes you sick and you lose a day's work. Calomel is a nasty, dangerous chemical. To live you must get rid of the bile and bowels when constipated, headachy, bilious, just get a 10-cent box of harmless, Cascarets. They work while you sleep, don't gripe, sicken or salivate.

NO FARE INCREASE EFFECTIVE MAR. 1ST COMMISSION RULES

Interstate Commerce Body Stays Passenger Rate Boat of Railroad.

Work Petitioners Here.

F. W. Zimmerman, local agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway, Otto F. Schickel, an engineer, and Daniel P. Davey, a conductor, both Milwaukee road employees, left here yesterday to work towns along the Milwaukee Point division of the system in the interests of the company relative to the petition before the Wisconsin legislature, praying for an investigation of railway passenger rates and subsequent increase from two to two and one-half cents per mile. While the Milwaukee employees are covering the Milwaukee Point division, other workers are canvassing towns on the system. Alva L. Hemmings, local agent for the Chicago and Northwestern road, is circulating his petition here. The Soo Line, which with the Milwaukee and the C. & N. W. roads, offered the joint petition to the lawmakers at Madison, is covering its respective territory in a similar manner.

The Milwaukee men have worked throughout the week and are said to have close to eleven hundred names on their list. They have canvassed the downtown business section of the city and during morning train time have been at the depots to secure the signatures of many railroad men passing through on trains and of others who congregate at the depot at this hour.

News dispatches today from Washington to the effect that yesterday the interstate commerce commission had suspended the proposed increase in interstate passenger rates in what is known as the "western and southern" passenger association territory originally planned by the way systems in this particular district to become effective March 1, is expected to place something of a wet blanket on the action of the three roads which maintain lines in Wisconsin and which petitioned for a half cent increase for interstate trips. Incidentally, both local ticket agents were more or less surprised today as a result of the great amount of work entailed in the arranging of new tariffs from Janesville, without the state.

In view of the fact that the federal commission's order does not affect the petition of the Wisconsin roads to any great extent, opponents of the rate increase are jubilant as they figure the act will later and justification in the staying of any rate above two cents per mile for passenger trips, either intra or interstate. The new delay reward has been given to the petitioners. The rate stay contained the information that Commissioner Daniels has been assigned by the commerce commission to proceed to Chicago and hold hearings on the matter of the rate increase. These are to begin on May 17. Attempts of the railway men to secure the endorsement of the rate increase by the Janesville Commercial club were not considered or discussed at the last regular meeting of this body.

THE A. CAPELLA CHOIR SING HERE MARCH 5TH

Famous Singing Organization at Congregational Church Friday Evening, March 5th, Under Auspices of Apollo Club.

The A. Capella Choir of the Northwestern University School of Music is composed of thirty voices, selected by Dean Lutkin as the best voices in the school. The choir is trained by Dean Lutkin personally and its instruction is considered the best in this country.

Festival of South Bend, Indiana. Charles E. Witt in the Music News paid the following tribute to the singing of the choir:

It is difficult to praise too highly the singing of the A. Capella Choir. It is so delicate and so fragile that it sounds like nothing else at all, which we are familiar and yet there is the absolute feeling at all times that there is great reserve power back of the melody and that this may be called upon for shading to an unlimited degree; the attacks are, of course, absolutely perfect; the intonation is something at which to marvel and in the matter of execution such efficiency has been attained that the twenty-four singers seem even to "dot their i's and cross their t's" with absolute unanimity. Altogether a charming innovation on a festival program and South Bend is glad to have heard the organization and hopes for its return.

QUASH CONTAGION AT EARLY MOMENT: THREE CARDS USED

Two cases of scarlet fever are prevalent in the first ward. One is a child, a pupil at the first ward school, but prompt action by the part of the health department in the fumigation of the school room has caused parents of children in this section of the city to dispel all thoughts of a scare. A similar case was reported today to Health Officer Dr. S. B. Buckmaster and this afternoon the attending physician kept close watch of the child to determine the exact trouble. It was not known exactly whether the case is contagious, a card for diphtheria, the first contagious disease marker to be used since October, with the exception of the last year. Both scarlet fever cases are extremely light and scarcely any temperature above normal is registered.

SUPREME COURT QUASHES MOTION FOR REHEARING IN CASE OF LOCAL MAN

Advices have been received in the city that the delay in getting judgment perfected and costs taxed in the case of C. J. Fox of this city against the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway company is occasioned because of the motion for rehearing made by the railway company. It is understood by Fox's attorney that the clerk of the supreme court has denied the motion of a rehearing. At present there seems to be nothing in the way of delaying the judgment and the money which can be attended by the Milwaukee people and the money should be secured within a period of twenty days.

CITY RECEIVES TAXES FROM PHONE COMPANIES

City treasurer George W. Muenchow this morning received checks for the amount of the city tax due from the two telephone companies operating in this city. A statement prepared by Alonzo Burt, vice president of the Wisconsin company, shows the gross receipts from exchange services during the last year to be $2,524.47. The city's five percent of eighty-five percent of this amount—$2,154.24—which amounts to $1,382.20. The Rock county company paid a tax of $701.00, but no statement of the exchange was received.

PRESIDENT LOVEJOY PICKS CHURCH FIVES

League Head Selects Brown, Lee, McVicar, Selger and Beard on First Selection.

Picking the first and second selections for all-star teams out of the church league material this year, President H. Stowe Lovejoy of the League headed off the team necessary with which to pick teams that will prove generally satisfactory. The number of games played, the ability to score, the lack of fouling and the general good behavior of the players have all been taken into consideration in choosing the ten best men in the league.

In placing George Brown at center on the first team, President Lovejoy has picked without a doubt one of the best all-around basketball players in the city, and but for disqualifications would be playing on the high school five. McVicar and Mooney are picks, while Badger and Beard won the guard positions. Beard, at throwing goals from guard, was a sensation in the three games he played. The first team for the best that can be picked out for this season.

More care was taken in selecting the second team. As Craig scored many times and was a valuable player, he was given a slight advantage over Pond of the Baptists. Williams, had he been on the job more of the time, would have been picked for the first team. Lee shaded him last Monday. Falter was the second best center in the league and is given that position over Dennett. McVicar and Mooney are picked, and Taylor were stellar guards, ranking a little below the first team men. There are a few players who played only a couple of games, who, Mr. Lovejoy has been picking for the first and second teams, had they played all season. Dennett, Viney and Kober deserve honorable mention.

BOY TRIED TO STEAL HORSE FROM CROWN

Fifteen-Year-Old Lad Caught at Fort Atkinson and Brought Back by Sheriff Chamberlain.

Sheriff D. Chamberlain this morning brought Virgil Raymond Baker, aged fifteen years, to the Rock county jail this morning from Fort Atkinson, where he was caught by the police of that place for stealing a horse owned by Lawrence Cronin. The theft was committed Thursday afternoon. The boy, with tears rolling down his cheeks, declared he took the horse on order that he might go to his home and mother, who lives in Spooner, Wisconsin. He is but a child and his bravado in taking the horse and riding it for several days and offering the animal for sale for fifty dollars to several livery owners along the route caused much surprise among the officers. At the place where he was working at the Cronin dairy and went under the name of John Gordon to escape being found by the authorities of the Sparta school for delinquent children, where he was an inmate for several years. Four years ago the boy said he was paroled out to a farmer named Edson Judd at Cambria, Wisconsin, and he worked on the farm for a week ago, when he ran away, coming to Janesville. At the school or at the Cambria farm he was not allowed to communicate with his mother or his brothers and on being here he learned if his mother was alive and where his brothers were. The boy was the youngest of a family of nine and when his father died was sent to the Sparta school. He was unable to support the family. Yesterday afternoon about one o'clock Baker bridled one of the horses owned by Cronin and started toward Milton. He offered the animal for fifty dollars to F. E. Arrington at Milton, and when refused did not dare turn back, but proceeded to Fort Atkinson. Sheriff Chamberlain was telephoned here and when Baker was seen riding down bareback on the horse he was arrested.

The boy will be arraigned in the municipal court this afternoon and will probably be sent back to the Sparta institution, as his offense is a violation of his parole. Baker's stealing of the horse rivals the case on police records of a chronic horse thief, a sixteen year old boy stole a team of horses and farmer's wagon and tried to sell the property in Madison.

CHANGE OF VENUE TAKEN IN EVANSVILLE ASSAULT CASE

Attorney Thomas S. Nolan was granted change of venue Judge H. L. Maxwell in the municipal court this morning, when he filed an affidavit claiming prejudice in the case of the state vs. Gilbert Van Wormer of Evansville, who is charged with assault with the intent to do great bodily harm. District Attorney Dunwiddie filed the information which alleged Van Wormer committed the serious assault against Frank W. Jones in Evansville on January 23d. It is claimed that the two Evansville men engaged in an encounter and that Van Wormer was the victor and the complainant. This is the first case that has been taken from the municipal court to the circuit. It will be tried before the jury early in March.

DISMISS CASE AGAINST EDGERTON YOUNG MAN

On the motion of District Attorney Dunwiddie, Judge Maxwell this morning dismissed the case against Minor Bobb of Edgerton and Freeport, as the harmony efforts to unite Mr. and Mrs. Bobb were successful. Bobb was charged by his young and pretty wife with desertion.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breat Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tis", at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

ALL LIVESTOCK HAS DULL MARKET TODAY

Hog Demand Slow With Prices Remaining at Yesterday's Range.

Sheep Trade Dull.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—All livestock met a poor demand in this morning's market and trading continued sluggish throughout the day despite the fact that receipts were light. Hogs sold at yesterday's range of prices, best light butchers topping the market at $8.80. Sheep demand was dull and cattle inactive. Following are quotations:

Receipts—Cattle, 2,000; market slow; native steers 5.50@9.00; western steers 5.10@7.50; cows and heifers 3.00@7.75; calves 7.00@10.50. Hogs—Receipts, 25,000; market weak at yesterday's average; light 6.55@8.80; mixed 6.45@8.80; heavy 6.35@8.70.

Thursday's Market.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—The upward trend of lamb values was checked yesterday. Largest day's receipts of the month and prospects of liberal supplies next week caused weakness. Continued small arrivals of hogs and sheep, however, kept demand values $5@10c higher to highest point since Feb. 16, at $6.85 for best.

After a steady to strong start the cattle trade weakened yesterday, with a sharp reaction in the hog market from the 50¢@51¢ advance earlier in the week.

Receipts for today are estimated at 2,500 cattle, 22,000 hogs and 10,000 sheep, against 1,700 cattle, 39,500 hogs and 8,500 sheep a week ago. 1,355 cattle, 22,649 hogs and 17,689 sheep corresponding Friday a year ago.

Hog Average Higher.

Average price of hogs at Chicago was $6.68, against $6.62 Wednesday, $6.53 a week ago, and $8.75 a year ago, $8.30 two years ago, and $6.44 three years ago. Yesterday's hog purchases followed:

CLEAR UP MYSTERY OF RECENT THEFTS

Champion Recovers Traveling Bags Taken from Auditorium Saturday Evening.

Chief of Police Champion is rivaling the celebrated Sherlock Holmes when it comes to recovering stolen property. Yesterday the confession of one thief by an unsigned letter revealed the hiding place of 18,000 tubes were stolen from the J. W. McCue flat and today two other minor thefts were cleared up.

Valuable traveling bags that were stolen from the auditorium last Saturday from Raymond Adler and a Troy, New York, basketball player, were recovered at Brookhead and will be returned to their owner. Chief Champion, after investigating, entertained suspicions against two Brookhead young men and after communicating with the Brookhead police, the bags were returned. No arrests have been made or complaints charged against the persons who had the property. Last Saturday three pairs of roller skates were taken at the rink by three Janesville boys and these were recovered at their homes yesterday afternoon by the police.

A farmer living near Janesville was called into the police headquarters yesterday and made an account of the sale of two hundred pounds of copper telephone wire which was sold for sixteen dollars at a local junk shop. The wire was torn down during the heavy storm three weeks ago and the farmer saw a chance to make a little cash. It was claimed by him that he was given permission by one of the employees of the company to take the wire. No complaint has been made to the court yet and no further action is expected to be taken as the wire has been returned.

A Flood of Wine.

The Argentinians are a wine-drinking nation. The natives are of Spanish descent and are accustomed to having wine with their meals. The immigrants, who have come in by the millions and who form perhaps one-half of the population, are mostly Italians and Spaniards, all of whom drink wine every day. All of the small Italian farmers have their own vine supply and every one who can afford it lays in a number of casks for his own use.

Secret of True Industry.

How profitable is it for every one of us to be reminded, as we are reminded when we make ourselves aware of the derivation of diligence from "dilligere" to love, that the only secret of true industry is love of that work!—R. C. Trench.

WHITE SOX AND YANKS WILL BE IN RUNNING

Chicago Americans Under Rowlands Promise to Make Matters Decidedly Interesting this Season.

(By Hal Sheridan.)
New York, Feb. 26.—"Watch the White Sox and the Yanks this season; next October is going to find them a whole lot nearer the top than did last October. Maybe one of them will win the pennant; maybe not—but you can take it from me the team that wins it is going to have to play these two hard and safe all the way. This was the warning given at a recent meeting here by a veteran manager who has seen seasons come and go—many more than he cares to admit.
"For why?" he echoed. "Just this—the Sox are due to make things hot for the winner because they have all the requisites of a darned good team; and the Yanks because they are in the Braves' class—not conceding a chance at the start of the season. I have a hunch that the manager in Bill Dwyer who will get more work out of his men than any man in the business with the exception of George Stallings.
"The Sox now have a real team now that Eddie Collins is playing second bag. He's a whole team in himself, for that matter. Their pitching staff last year was second to none in the league—C. J. E. Faber, Russell, Bender and Scott. And anybody's dust if they're not taken care of. Collins is going to cover a multitude of sins with his batting and base running. And he's going to steady this big heavy-hitter Frenchman, Fournier, at first, too.
"The Yanks are going to figure, strange as it may seem. Remember anything much but a season ago when they started last season. That's the way with the Yanks. It may be a fool bunch of mine, but I can't see anything but them up there bating all the way.

WHITE PROVES GOAT FOR WELSH IN MILL

Britisher Has Easy Time in Fistic War at Milwaukee Last Night.

Welsh Winner.
Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 25.—Charley White, the Chicago "zeppher," was as tasty a trimming as any man who ever stepped into the ring, at the hands of Freddy Welsh, champion of the world, at the Auditorium last night. This time there was absolutely no question about the outcome, and even the most rabid partisans of the Chicago boy will have to draw on their imaginations to even think of a draw decision. Welsh made a monkey of White during the whole bout and came out without a mark and scarcely even sweated up.
The famous left hook, sole stock in trade of the Hebrew batter, must have been checked at the Union station on White's arrival in town. It was not in the ring, one lead started. White did not get started himself. He had stated before the fight that he intended to carry the fight to Welsh. The Briton settled that question, and did so decisively by hitting White a pace that Charley could not stand it.
Even the famous finish, upon which so many "White verdicts" have been based, among those missing, it was a complete affair, from start to finish.
Charley invaded the British war zone, and though he was not sunk, he was manacled so foolishly that it is hoped he hasn't nerve to challenge Freddie again.
Welsh was a revelation. Though last in his last bout, he was chained lightning last night. For the first time since winning the title from Freddie, he made a real fight of it. He weighed in at 135 pounds and was not one-quarter pound heavier than last time.
Welsh boxed his customary cautious ten round no decision match and White fought his usual ten round scuffling game. The British champion was a wonder at stepping in, clipping over a light left and then clamping the flat-footed White before he could move that "dead" left hook.
White's blows were wild because the fantastic and the Chitlins' reputation suffered a decided down fall last night and even his pet followers were forced to admit that he was lacking in championship class and that his titular dreams have now vanished in the thin air.
The battle was poorly attended, the attendance numbering but 3,337 and the receipts slightly over seven thousand dollars. In the preliminary Young Scotty, a Janesville favorite, gave Eddie Harris a bad trimming in four rounds, making Harris wish he had never crawled between the ropes against the Jones Island willicy Johnny Brile. St. Paul's crack bantam whipped Welsh. Eddie Moha gave Johnny Slavatore a bad beating in six rounds.

Our best young fighters have to have a sizable house with money in it, or they will not feel like fighting. Jack Dillon of Indianapolis, R. L. Mantell of Pawtucket, R. L. were scheduled to meet in the Federal C. C. Atlantic garden, N. Y., the other night. Only 300 turned out. The boys sized up the crowd and declined to fight. After two or three preliminaries the main battle was postponed.

BILLIARD TOURNAMENT BEING PLANNED HERE

Inter-City Matches Between Beloit and Janesville Three Men Teams Would Interest Cue Followers.

Janesville and Beloit are expected to clash soon with representatives teams on the billiard table. The meeting of a team of three members in an inter-city tournament with a series to be played in each city was brought up among the billiard fans last year but until the last week no progress was made by the local cue artists.
Carl Lass is the Beloit man to back a trio of the Line City billiard players and Jerry Miller of this city is picking a team to oppose the Beloit stars. Two of the Janesville players have been picked and a third one is expected to give his consent today in participating in the match. The Beloit "Hoppers" named to meet the Janesville trio are Charles Stokes, Sam Kohn and Walter Annin, who are credited with being excellent players. Warner and Richards are the local men named for the team.

MORRIS MILLER
Some sort of special medal or iron cross ought to be devised for Branch Rickey and pinned upon him when his St. Louis Americans play their opener in the spring. His claim to distinction lies in the fact that he has won any pennant the coming season. In the realm of tall ambitions and lofty assertions, this pronouncement has a unique sound. Rickey did well with the team last year. Employing some of the methods he had used as a college coach, he brought the Browns up to a position among the leaders for part of the season, and made a good finish.

The Milwaukee Brewers will stick to their pennant-winning line-up.
Ohio boxing fans are experiencing more or less difficulty in getting across a bill in the state legislature to authorize boxing contests under the supervision of a special state commission. The cities committee of the house smothered the measure temporarily the other day by refusing 6 to 3 to report out the bill with recommendation and by a similar vote refused to recommend the measure for passage. A substitute measure, urged by Columbus fans, was also knocked out. Instead of a state commission, it is proposed that a mayor or sheriff might appoint a local boxing commission on application of a local athletic club. Columbus has such a commission and does not want to give it up for the state plan.

Managers hope that the European war won't divert attention from baseball this season as it did last fall in some places.
Hi Jasper's younger brother signed to pitch for Peoria.

Once in a while we get a real oddity in the sport news. An inmate of the Douglas county insane asylum, near Superior, Wis., R. Young, has constructed at a cost of twenty cents a very fair substitute for a curling stone. The implement used in curling. A goods one from the store costs about $20. Using concrete, he has shaped around it while the cement is still soft, at the same time sinking a mesh into the top to serve as a handle.

Lee Tannehill, sold to Los Angeles, may regain some of his old time form under the warming California sun.
Instead of the usual triangular track meet including Indiana, Purdue, and Notre Dame, it is likely that a big meet to be participated in by all the colleges and universities in Indiana will be held this spring. Each of the three institutions named above will try to get the meet for its own athletic field. Wyabash, De Pauw, Earlham, and Butler, among the smaller colleges, have already signified a desire to participate.

Because of the war, British amateur golf tournament will be abandoned this season for the first time in twenty-nine years.

But the war doesn't interfere with all lines of sport on the other side. Georges Boillot, head of the Peugeot team, and one of the foremost drivers of the old world, writes that he proposes to try to arrange with the French government to get away in order to participate in the race at the new Chicago speedway on June 19, and at Indianapolis May 30. If he comes, Jules Goux will doubtless appear as his teammate.

"Pure bunk," say Frank Farrell and William Devery, ex-owners of Yanks, in connecting on report that they would buy Red team.

Once in a while it is still necessary to explain to high school and college students that it isn't good sportsmanship to jeer at opponents in athletics. A Hillsdale college professor is one of the latest to shake the deprecatory finger. Students are often young animals who do not know how to behave decently until they are taught what it means to be a mucker.

PROSPECTS ARE GOOD FOR ORGANIZED BALL

BUSINESS MEN PLEDGE SUPPORT ON SUBSCRIPTION LIST FOR LEAGUE NINE.

ELECT SEVEN OFFICERS

H. W. McNamara Elected President of Janesville Club at Meeting Held Last Night at City Hall.

(By Strikes)
Janesville is to have organized baseball. Although the prospect of having a club in the new Bi-State league appeared very shaky at the opening of the baseball meeting held at the city hall assembly room, and gloom hung over the league promoters, there was enough of the business men and followers of baseball on hand shortly after the meeting was called to pledge the support of the city in securing the three thousand dollars needed to back a team in the new circuit.
It was reported that between sixteen and seventeen hundred dollars had already been pledged and about fifteen hundred dollars is expected to be raised the first of next week, when a committee of local business men take the affair in hand and solicit funds. In the election of the officers of the Janesville club, Harry McNamara was chosen president, John Soulmans secretary and treasurer, and Timothy J. McKeigue, Frank Croak and Louis Lewis as directors. The other director will be named at the next meeting.

Parsons Attends Meeting.
B. N. Parsons, president of the proposed league, C. S. Marshall, George E. Welsh, president of the Aurora club, and C. Shockley of Rockford, attended the meeting and put the subject of organizing the club here before the fifty or sixty men present. Mr. Welsh was elected chairman of the evening and voiced the attitude expressed by the Janesville business men in supporting league ball here. To Mr. Welsh's way of thinking the public in general is willing to support a team if satisfactory terms can be made by the directors of the league whereby the clubs of the smaller cities would have equal advantage in both gate receipts and playing strength with those of the larger cities such as Rockford and Aurora. With a winning team the sentiment of the local men was that organized baseball would be successful here and make money in Janesville for the city has ever been ready to back a project that would be creditable.

The Janesville men advanced the argument that the league rules should provide for a fifty per cent of all gate receipts in order to insure that the clubs of the cities of less population would be on an equal financial basis with the larger clubs. Instead of paying the visiting team a guarantee of ten or fifty dollars, they would declare that the visitors should be given one-half of the receipts, a system which is not used in any league. After considerable argument there was no adverse reason given by the opponents of such a dividing system except the extra expense that it would demand in the salary of an officer to superintend the collection of the gate money. An equal division of players was also upheld and demanded so as to make the nine evenly matched and insure an inter-city rivalry.

The Janesville men realized that success of the league and the drawing power of the team and that the drawing power depends on how close to the top of the percentage column the club will be during the season.

Start Schedule April 6th.
It was explained by President Parsons that the Bi-State league would have a schedule of 126 games, starting about April 6th and ending Labor Day. Of this season's games, each club playing nine or ten Sundays on their home grounds. On holidays a pool is formed of the receipts of all the clubs and is equally divided. A salary limit of $1,100 was favored and the player limit of ten was eleven men. This rule would not apply to the manager's salary.

To obtain first class minor league players was to be an easy task, declared the league officers. Since the National league established the twenty-one player limit, the American association cut down to sixteen men, and the dissolving of about twenty smaller leagues last year in Canada and in western states, there are plenty of diamond artists to be obtained at reasonable salaries this season. Both Marshall and Butler reported that they had hundreds of applications of high class men for positions below the limit named by the new league men. The training expense would have to be before the schedule season, but the best part of this is paid for by exhibition games, and Beloit promises to have plenty of semi-professional aggregations who will have to trim anything this side of Lake Michigan.

Practice Games With Beloit.
A series of games with Beloit nine would bring the traveling expense on the right side of the ledger and enable the Janesville team to start the season without touching the reserve fund put up by the business men. The cost of equipping the club would be around two hundred dollars and the general expense of operating through the season would be between seven and eight thousand dollars. It was estimated that if twenty thousand witnessed the games during the home schedule that the club could finish their season without incurring a debt. President Parsons after the meeting said: "The prospects are bright for Janesville and I expect to see the city on the baseball map with a winning team, for the spirit manifested here shows that a creditable team will have the support of the entire community—which is the vital proposition."

A meeting of the new directors will be called within a few days if the remaining money is raised, and there is every reason to believe it will be, to elect a manager and start the ball rolling for a winning team here.

Y. M. C. A. SECONDS BEATEN AT MILTON

Play is Even in Second Half, While First Period Goes to College Five by Overwhelming Score.

Failure on the part of the first Y. M. C. A. team to report for practice Wednesday night, Physical Director Leak took to Milton last evening his second team, and as a result, Janesville was trimmed to the tune of 52 to 29 by the Milton college varsity substitutes. Two of the Milton players were members of the varsity team last winter.

The first half of the game last night went to Milton by a score of 24 to 2. Shattuck scoring Janesville's lone goal. Janesville resorted to short passing, and no longer had they concluded a spurt of fine team play than would the Milton five take over from the bounding board, and with one of the two forwards at the other end of the large floor, would send the sphere through the air at him, and a goal was counted. As far as basketball was concerned, the seconds played all around the Milton subs.

The second half was a different story, as shown by the 28 to 18 score. Had the first team come up to Milton, the score would easily have been reversed. The summary:
Y. M. C. A. 2ds—George Brown, 1; Noyes, 1; Kerner, 1; Cannon, 1; Shattuck, 1; Beard and Noyes, 2; Milton Subs—A. Burdick, 1; W. D. Burdick and Lamphere, 1; Van Horn and McMay, 1; Thornage, 1; Talbot, 1.
Field goals—A. Burdick, 8; W. D. Burdick, 5; Lamphere, 5; Van Horn, 5; McMay, 1; Brown, 1; Cannon, 1; Shattuck, 1; Noyes, 1. Free throws—Burdick 4 out of 5.
Referee—Sorenson; scorer, Leak.

HOT BOWLING MATCH WON BY TWENTY-FIVE PINS AT MILLER'S LAST EVENING

By twenty-five pins the Miller's Tigers conquered the Miller's Giants last evening at Miller's alleys. Each game was a neck and neck fight. Osborn, by sensational rolling in his last game, was the star man, winning the match. Miller's first team play the Y. M. C. A. five at the former's alleys Monday night. Scores last night are as follows:

Quinn	175	179	160
Kueck	138	169	161
Kirkhoff	132	113	133
Osborn	129	189	153
Robbins	171	149	203

Brief Sport Notes

Meet Gophers Saturday: The Wisconsin varsity basketball team has three scheduled games yet to play with conference fives. On Saturday night the Gophers play at Madison. Ohio State at Madison and Chicago at Chicago are the other two games. If Chicago loses another game, and the Badgers win all three games, the Maroons will be forced out of second place.
Milton Tourney: All Milton is awake to the big basketball tournament that is scheduled to take place at the old town, March 17th and 18th. Seven to ten teams are expected to enter, among them being Edgerton, Stouten, Evansville, Milton, Brodhead, Janesville and others.

Dogs vs. Jackrabbits.
Aberdeen, S. D., Feb. 26.—"You would have to tie a fifty pound weight on those jackrabbits of yours in Pennsylvania so that you could get your beagles close enough to smell them. Even factory whistles in Pennsylvania would scare our South Dakota jackrabbits clear out of the state."
This was the letter Moses Bantz wrote J. L. Johnson at Irving, Pennsylvania. Johnson had written Bantz for a half a dozen eager jackrabbits to give his pet beagles a little exercise.

STEAM VS. ELECTRICITY.

One of the great problems of the engineering world today is the problem of steam versus electricity. Particularly is this true in the circles of railroad activity. In some cases, particularly Chicago, the railroads run for long distances through the center of the city. The complaints as to smoke have been so strong that the question of the use of electricity as a medium of transportation has been seriously considered and has been experimented with extensively. The Christian Science Monitor discusses the question of steam versus electricity by saying:

"The general disposition of practical railroad men, we believe, is well understood to be unfavorable to electrification. Such men have rarely missed an opportunity to discount and to pronounce as fanciful the advantages made by laymen regarding the advantages that would accompany a departure from the old to the new system of motive power. Much of the opposition, doubtless, arises from the fact that such a departure would mean a revolution in transportation methods and the consequent abandonment not of costly steam equipment, but of years of experience in connection with steam propulsion. One of the great trunk lines of the United States, the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, as is generally known, has installed an electrical equipment for a large section of its transcontinental line. The conditions to be met in that section are probably as trying as any that would have to be dealt with in any other part of the country. After the employment of electrification over a period long enough to justify conclusions, an operating official of the line named has drawn up his knowledge for a summing up of the case in behalf of the electric system.

"It speaks so much for quiet, cleanliness and comfort of travel in the future that we are certain the general verdict will give widespread satisfaction. It is found that electrification means a reduction of operating expense, the cutting of delay incident to stops required at terminals for change of locomotives and of stops necessary between terminals for coal, water and occasional cleaning of fires; it lessens delays during the time of heavy freight movement resulting from inability at roundhouses to get work done on steam engines; it cuts the delay and labor incident to the handling and transportation of a large volume of coal; it promotes greater uniformity in tonnage handled; it does away with coal tenders, thus reducing hauling weight and increasing locomotive traction power, and it dispenses with boilers and the trouble connected with their care.

"Many other and equally weighty reasons are given in support of the proposition that electrification is desirable from an economic standpoint. The electric engine may be run continuously over several divisions, which is not the case with the steam locomotive, as the latter must be changed at the end of 100 or 150 miles. The electric engine runs uniformly, too, on all grades, and should be as efficient on top of the steep mountain incline as at the bottom. In addition to all this the employment of electricity in locomotion makes possible the electric lighting and heating of stations, the operation of station machinery, and so on.

It is admitted frankly that electrification still presents some difficulties, and that some of the advantages mentioned are still based on theory, but practical experience seems to bear out the conclusion that the system in time can be made to fit every reasonable requirement. Nothing is said, of course, about cleaner travel, the elimination of noise and smoke and the comfort that is to come through more generous ventilation when the flying cinder need no longer be taken into account."

FILE THEIR PROTEST.

The railroad mail clerks resent the plan of the government to oppose a deficiency wage tax on their salaries by a wholesale and sweeping reduction of the amounts they can earn each year. As it is they do not receive any too large pay for the work they do, or the risks they run. They should be paid according to their value and the democratic administration should not seek to recoup their deficiency by legislation, by cutting the salary lists of these faithful employees. The secretary of the Brotherhood of Railway Postal Clerks has sent a copy of the following letter to every congressman giving the workers' side of the question, and the public should back up their efforts to be given due recognition for the services they perform. The letter is as follows:

"Has anybody suggested an increase in the income tax rate of millionaires commensurate with even the peace time rates in Europe? And now, while the price of bread is soaring, has there even been a suggestion in congress to place a tax on marginal deals in wheat and other grains, and on speculative marginal stock market operations? No.

"On behalf of the Brotherhood of Railway Postal Clerks, I desire to enter an emphatic protest against the postal promotion proposal in the post office appropriation bill, which amounts in effect to the imposition of a war tax ranging from 6 to 11 per cent on the salaries of clerks in the railway mail service.

"The men who entered the service at the low rate of $900 and who, due to the present construction placed on the reclassification act for the railway mail service, have been obliged to serve nearly two years at that rate of compensation, and who will now, if this measure is enacted, suffer the loss of the promotion of $100 due during the next fiscal year are actually being taxed in excess of 11 per cent.

"In the light of the income tax law which taxes a married man's income at the low rate of 1 per cent, after that income reaches a figure of $4,000 per year, and when it is considered that that rate of taxation remains at 1 per cent until the income reaches $20,000 per year, and is fixed at only 2 per cent on incomes ranging from $20,000 to $50,000, we are not fully justified in saying that this proposal to pounce upon the $900 income of a railway postal clerk to the tune of 11 per cent is absolutely confiscatory?"

"The man with an income of from $20,000 to $50,000 pays a 2 per cent income tax, which in no wise affects his enjoyment of the comforts and luxuries of life. The low paid postal clerk, it is proposed, shall sacrifice 11 per cent of his total income in these days of rising prices.

"The railway postal clerks protest to a man against this proposed confiscatory tax, and will appreciate a letter from you outlining your stand on the question."

AN OPPORTUNITY.

There is before the state legislature a bill which would increase the state militia from thirty-two to forty companies, if passed. This means that eight new companies could be organized and recruited throughout the state. Since the return of the Janesville company from the Spanish-American war in 1898 this city has not been represented in the national guard of Wisconsin. Previous to that time Janesville had been well represented. At one time two companies were enrolled here and took prominent part in the state affairs. Janesville companies drilled at large expeditions were called on for riot duty and were ranking well up to the top of the various state guard organizations. If the total number of militia companies of the state is to be increased by eight here is an opportunity for Janesville to secure a place in the guard they desire, and it is up to those interested in the matter to make arrangements to meet the emergency, if the bill is passed.

Teaching geography in the Janesville public schools has reached a stage where it is not the old, dry system that was taught a few years ago when the pupils were told the top of the map was the north and the bottom the south, and the right hand the east and the left hand the west. It is really geography, history and literature all combined and the average pupil when they finish a year's study under such teachers, know more than their parents did after years of study of the same subject under different names.

The question of the two and a half cent railroad fare is going to be one of the serious problems that the present legislature has to consider. The railroads have already placed their regular lobby in the field and the proposition is worth considering. There is much that can be said in its favor and but very little against the proposed law. The railroads have too long been the target for the reformer and it is time to call a halt in practical confiscation of property to suit the whims of demagogues.

The bill which would prohibit cigarette smoking by any student or instructor in Wisconsin institutions of learning has been indefinitely postponed by the committee before whom it came for consideration. Thus far one of the freak legislative measures has met an untimely end and others of similar nature will be treated likewise.

Edgerott last night honored one of its fellow citizens, L. C. Whittier, by a public banquet. Mr. Whittier is making an enviable name for himself as speaker of the assembly in the present legislature and is deserving of the honor shown him by his fellow citizens.

The first week of the sea blockade of England has resulted in several ships being sunk by floating mines and submarines, but beyond being a general scare similar to the threatened air raids of England, nothing material has developed.

Peace in the European struggle is apparently as far away at the present time as it was when the war started and if we may believe reports, each of the nations engaged in the struggle is ready to continue it for an indefinite period.

If the Russian reports can be believed the loss of the hundred thousand men captured by Germany in battle, is merely an incident and one which they almost overlook in their report sheets.

The Day's News.
T. R. takes his pen in hand just to make us understand that Colombia is a grifter. Is our hard earned money after. She wants millions twenty-five. It's an outrage, sakes alive! She's a some-on, she's a slicker, she's a Panama gold-bricker. And she's handing out the bunk in a manner that is punk. But she didn't fool him, ever. In the White House he was clever. For a debt we do not owe. He turned on her with a vim. And he showed his grin so dental. To this grifter monumental. That she quickly ran and hid. Yes, indeed, that's what she did. But Colombia's in clover. For she's going to put it over on poor Secretary Bryan. With her sighs and her cryin'. And she's going to get our dough. For a debt we do not owe. That is, if you are quite ready To believe the tale of Teddy.

The "Old Home Town." Do you remember the boy, shiftless fellows in the old home town who used to sit around the hardware store and predict the failure of every young kid who tried to poke his head up above the common herd? They used to poke fun at young Bill McAdoo back in the old home town. You've heard of Bill, ain't ye? Well, Bill he is secretary of the treasury now.

But there are a lot of old tads back in the old home town who sort of hope that Bill will trip up yet and land in the consummum.

They made a lot of fun of a young kid named Bryan who used to think he could make a speech. And Orville Wright used to be a regular joke, back in the old home town.

It is the old home town itself that is the joke.

Uncle Abner. When Lem Higgins was down to New York he went into a store to get some ladies' hose and the clerk said: "Are they for your wife, or do you want something more expensive?"

Higher education will get a boost when it gets there is as much money in teachin' school as there is in driving a hack, but that time will never come.

The fellows around our village believe that Elihu Prindle is in love. He is getting so he wears a collar and necktie week days.

Ren Binks of our town lost his job as light comedian of a company. He took on fifteen pounds and is too heavy now.

Welcome Exceptions. Old Ebenezer Ephraim Brown's Consider'n how things go: He says he thinks the world's all right.

Ez Haskins is a fine old tad. He says that when the world goes bad It's a feller's own darned fault.

A Snap. The president has got a snap. All that he's got to do Are just the things that are dead sure To tickle me and you And ninety million other folks. And then he is true blue.

And when the president is wrong. We raise an awful fuss. We say that he has got himself Into a frightful muss. And he is always wrong when he Does not agree with us.

The Times. Tell me not in mournful numbers That the times are going bad. "Philosophically" speaking, They're the best that we have had.

WUZZA BUDDEY. Scientists claim that the coal supply will last ten thousand years. We have reason to doubt this statement.

Our coal supply gave out a week ago and since then we have followed the example of the shipwrecked mariners who burned the ship's furniture and then the woodwork of the cabins to keep up the fires in desperate weather.

Up to date we have sacrificed the following:
Two step-ladders.
Lawn mower handle.
Three wash tubs.
Flour bin.
Five suit cases.
Two trunks.
Carpet sweeper.
The kitchen table.
Webster's Unabridged dictionary.
Kipling's "Plain Tales from the Hills."

The refrigerator.
Snow shovel.
Folding bed.
Complete set of Dickens.
The dining room furniture and the hall clock should last us through the present week.

Satisfied. I love an old-fashioned winter, see? It suits me, yes, right to a T. I love the snow, I love the sleet. With them my joy is quite complete.

Where Cleanliness is a Habit.

I have no kick to make at all. When winter's snow begins to fall. A blizzard does not get my goat. Or make me wear a fur-lined coat. I don't complain of chilly blast. Or shiver when it wanders past. You never hear me make a yell. Or when there is the coldest spell. When mercury to zero goes. I do not freeze my ears or nose. You ask me why I never scold About the winter's snow and cold? Oh, I'm one of those guys, you know, Who winter in New Mexico.

TO LEAVE QUESTION OF PAVING MATERIAL TO PROPERTY OWNERS

City Council Arranges for Hearing on Milton Avenue and Franklin Street Improvements.

On Tuesday afternoon, March 2nd, at three o'clock the city commission will bring the question of the pavements to be laid on Milton Avenue and South Franklin street before the property owners who are urged to attend the meeting and voice their opinion on the use of material to be adopted. A popular endorsement of some pavement is sought by the city officials before the work is ordered and plans made by the board of public works.

At the council meeting held yesterday afternoon the commission considered the pavement subject and decided in favor of the public meeting.
Accurate figures and estimates of the cost of brick, concrete, macadam and asphalt macadam pavements will be given by the officials. It is the plan to improve Milton Avenue from St. Mary's Avenue to the city limits, and South Franklin street from Milwaukee street to Galena street.

Under a resolution introduced by Councilman Cummings, the Janesville Electric company has been ordered to change the arc lights now at Division and South Second street; East street and South Second; Jackson and South Second; Clark and Main; Carrington and Main, to incandescent lights of one hundred candle-power. In addition to these changes the arc lights will be placed on the following streets: Milwaukee and Wisconsin; Third and Wisconsin; East and St. Lawrence Avenue; Second and Jackson; Sinclair and St. Lawrence; Clark and Third; Wheeler and Garfield. The commission has ordered the gradual changing of the arc lights of 1200 candles to incandescent lights of one hundred candle-power.

A light on every street intersection or wherever needed is the aim of the council and to date a total of 103 of the hundred candle-power lamps have been added. The Electric Light company allow five of the smaller lights for two of the arc lights is $62 per year and the hundred candle-power lamps cost $24 a considerable saving.
Under the contract with the Electric company there were 209 of the electric lights placed in operation and 35 sixty candle-power lights. The saving commission estimates will balance the added lighting expense of about $2,500 when the "new white way" of ornamental lights on the main streets is installed, through the aid of the Commercial club. The contract is to be made with the Electric company on July 25, this year, and the council aims to experiment with the city's needs under the new contract.
The salary resolution for city officials for the month of February was allowed and orders drawn for the amounts.

City Clerk J. P. Hammelund was directed to draw an order on the city treasurer for the amount of $3,193.73, from the general fund, to pay to the state treasurer for the cost of the reassessment made in Janesville in 1914. The cost of the assessment was listed as being $2,815.25 with interest amounting to $348.48.

Superintendent of Streets P. J.
Goodman was ordered to report to the council on the amount of the city limits from a point near the intersection with Elliott street. Councilman Goodman was directed to remove obstructions and make improvements on South Third street to open the block between Ringold and Forest Park boulevard for traffic.

The report of the acting visiting nurse, Miss Elizabeth Jovoy, was received, accepted and ordered filed.
There were forty-one cases listed in the report that came under the care of Miss Jovoy during the month of January. One case was sent to the hospital, three children were fitted with glasses and 124 calls were made during the month.

On motion the council adjourned.

Basketball at Rink Saturday night.

COMMITTEE FINDS LIGHT PLANS SUIT

Canvass of Proposed Illuminated Section Demonstrates Enthusiasm to New System.

plans for making Janesville's business streets a "Great White Way" continue to gratify the efforts of members of the lighting committee of the Janesville Commercial club, in their work of calling on merchants and property owners and the day proposed for modern illumination. The committee spent a busy day yesterday in securing the co-operation of tenants and property owners alike and in explaining the plans being considered.
In not one instance did they fail to find enthusiasm in the light question and the matter of securing signatures and endorsement of the idea is a comparatively easy matter.

Signatures are being secured for all of the portion of the business district east of the river. This includes Main street, both north and south, and Milwaukee street east to Division street.
The plan is to have a small portion of West Milwaukee street, a part of Academy and a section on River street. Expectations that these sections will fall in line with the plan of the committee this morning, who planned to push the work to a terminus as rapidly as conditions permit.

STATE MILITIA BILL HAS INTEREST HERE

FORMER SOLDIERS OF CITY RAISE QUESTION WHY JANESVILLE DOES NOT SUPPORT OR-GANIZATION.

TELL OF CRACK BODIES

Many Remember Companies Which Were Famous in Their Day That Gave City An Envious Reputation.

The presence of a bill before the Wisconsin legislature to increase the state militia has given rise to some interesting discussions among military inclined men of Janesville. They recall with pride the crack companies that the Bower City once boasted of and the praises with prizes they secured wherever they competed in military tactics with other crack organizations of the state.

Incidentally the question has arisen as to whether or not that now is the acceptable time in which to bring Janesville once again under the state militia with the organization of a company here.

Veterans of the Spanish-American war and even those of the strife of '61 are naturally interested in the question and argue truly, "Wherein, other than along military lines, can the youth of today secure a better training and education to become sharp and true American citizens to take up the tasks of the morrow?"

They will talk and argue by hours of the advantages secured from the very fact of being a member of a company of soldiers.

Janesville's first military company was organized in November, 1855, and known as the Janesville City Guard. Arms and equipment were furnished by the state and the company was a small vacant room in the old Mitchell block. The organizers were evidently lacking in spirit for the company soon disbanded by mutual consent.

In March, 1861 a second company was organized. This was the Janesville Light Guard. Upon the second call to arms this entire company entered the service, becoming Company E, Fifth Wisconsin Volunteers.

The Janesville City Zouaves was the next company to organize under the state militia in June, 1861. The company was composed of principal men of the city who had become imbued with the spirit patriotic of the day. The company enlisted in the regular service as Company B, 15th Wisconsin.

Soon after the departure of this company for the front thoughts of an invasion by southern troops filled the minds of Janesville residents and a Home Guard was informally called together by citizens with the preservation of the Union at heart who stood in readiness to take up arms in its defense. Not a few of them later volunteered and gave their lives towards bringing the cruel conflict to a close.

The ardor which characterized the formation of military companies prior to and during the rebellion seems to have been somewhat cooled from the effects of regular duty and until well along in the seventies it is found that the organization of military companies was not of such frequent occurrence.

In 1878 two well organized and well drilled companies were formed. Both were supplied with accoutrements of war and ready to battle for the right at any time and had the call to arms been sounded the echo would have been heard from Janesville with the ardor of eighteen short years previous when state and county and city gave its quota in full to stem the tide of the confederacy.

The Janesville Guards were armed with Springfield breech-loaders. On the fourth of July of the year in which they first came together they competed with Oshkosh where in a competitive drill with the best companies of the state militia they secured first prize, $400 for marked efficiency in military tactics and drill.

What Does Your Mirror Say to You

If Your Face is Not Fair You Are Not Fair to Your Face. Use Stuart's
Calcium Wafers and Banish
Pimples, etc.

Before beauty can ever be realized it must have a complexion that adds to its luster, that makes a magnificent face contour radiate an artistic color. The charm of all beauty rests chiefly in the clear skin, the pure red blood, the soft cream-like complexion.

"It is an Exquisite Joy to Look in My Mirror Now—Stuart's Calcium Wafers Gave Me Back My Clear Complexion."

Stuart's Calcium Wafers act directly upon the sweat glands of the skin, since their mission is to stimulate the excretory ducts. They do not create perspiration, but cause the skin to breathe out vigorously, thus transforming perspiration into a gaseous vapor. The Calcium sulphide of which these wafers are composed consumes the germ poisons in the sweat glands and pores, hence the blood makes a new, smooth skin in a surprisingly short time.

You will never be ashamed to look at yourself in a mirror, once you use Stuart's Calcium Wafers. Nor will your friends give you that hinting look, as much as to say, "goodness, get rid of those pimples." There is no longer any excuse for anyone to have a face disfigured with skin eruptions, when it is so easy to get rid of them. Simply get a box of Stuart's Calcium Wafers at any drug store and take them according to directions. After a few days you will hardly recognize yourself in the mirror. The change will delight you immensely. All blemishes will disappear.

All druggists sell Stuart's Calcium Wafers at 50 cents a box. A small sample package mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., 175 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

SUSPICIOUS DEATH OF ORFORD WOMAN

Former Resident of Village Said to Have Been Murdered By Husband
at Rice Lake.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

Orfordville, Feb. 26.—The remains of Mrs. Edward Norton, formerly Miss Ella Shafer, of this place, thought to have been brought to Orfordville by her husband at Rice Lake on Monday, have been interred in the little cemetery here. Norton is held by Rice Lake officials pending an inquiry into the circumstances which brought on the demise while the deceased was preparing to be taken to a hospital for the removal of her tonsils. Mrs. Norton was covered dead in her home the morning she was to have gone to the hospital. Pending inquiries surrounding facts of the case, Norton is a prisoner.

Frank Coryell has moved onto his farm that he recently purchased, in the town of Newark.

Mrs. C. S. Dunn entertained a company of ladies at an old fashioned carpet raffle on Wednesday afternoon. Refreshments were served, and aside from the sewing of a goodly amount of rags the ladies enjoyed a very pleasant time.

Notices are being prepared and sent to the voters of the school district announcing the calling of a special meeting early in March to again submit the question of the building of a new school house. That the district is in need of a new building is admitted, but what will be the outcome of the meeting is problematic.

Justice C. E. Skinner of Brodhead transacted business in the village between trains on Thursday morning.

A. E. Toulon returned from the northern part of the state on Thursday, whither he has been on a business mission.

Frank Long of Edgerton is spending a few days in the village, visiting with his mother.

GROWERS TAKE PRICE OFFERED BY RIDERS

Farmers Not Inclined This Year to Store Crops for Better Money and Give Instant Release.

Wisconsin tobacco at the present time is moving with the speed of a spring freshet. There seems to be no desire on the part of the grower to hang onto his crop any longer.

Riders also are taking all portions offered. The bulk of sales are averaged at five cents, with some grades going as low as three cents, while others are securing eight and nine cents.

Riders have been somewhat handicapped by bad roads during the week, but since the weather cleared, the influx to the districts still increased. The stripping work is well along now and but a small portion remains in the curing sheds.

Local receiving has been progressing with slowly increasing speed. During the past week more deliveries have been made than in perhaps the previous eight or ten days. The work of sorting, too, is going along in a creditable manner and large forces are being employed in Janesville warehouses. Receipts of carload lots for warehouse handling are estimated at about twenty cars. From storage about three carloads of cases have moved within eight days.

DEBATORS READY TO MEET HOT ARGUMENTS TONIGHT

The Janesville debating teams are ready to meet some hot-pointed arguments tonight from the Madison and Beloit speakers. The team that left for Beloit were prepared to meet any attack, while the affirmative team, headed by Herwood, leader, Fisher and Sheldon, who debate Madison negative speakers here tonight at eight o'clock, hope to land one and possibly two votes. The negative side of the question looks the better one. The trio that went to Beloit is composed of Spohn, leader, Hyzer and Fuchs. The question is: "Resolved, that the parcel post business be extended so as to include the entire express business."

Yesterday and last evening marked the formal opening of a new boys' club room at the Y. M. C. A. building, a room that is to be strictly confined to the junior youths, who have had in the past little chance of enjoying themselves at the association other than the tank and gymnasium.

An old storage room in the basement of the building now serves the purpose of the new club room, in which is located the boys' lockers and a dressing corner. The idea was worked out by Associate Secretary Mackenzie, and from now on the young members will have plenty of amusement to be found adjoining their

EAT NEW BREAD, CABBAGE, SAUSAGE, FISH, "PAPE'S DIAEPSIN" WILL DIGEST IT ALL

NO INDIGESTION, NO SOUR, GAS-SY STOMACH OR DYSPEP-SIA. TRY IT.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyapeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diaepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered, you get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear. Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. Diaepsin is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as Pape's Diaepsin comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Put an end to stomach trouble by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diaepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

A Thorough Demonstration of the Power of Newspaper Advertising

Thousands of Dollars' Worth of Worthy Merchandise Sold In One Day In the Dullest Month Of the Year

The phenomenal success of Dollar Day in Janesville, the tremendous volume of sales attained by the stores participating in the movement is the finest possible exposition of the power of Gazette advertising.

Passenger agents at the depots report that they never before handled such a large number of passengers. People came in buggies, in autos, afoot, by trolley and train to take advantage of the bargains offered and the only way they had of learning of the Dollar Day bargains was through the columns of The Gazette.

The following expressions from the merchants themselves proves the scope of the Dollar Day movement and the power of Gazette advertising to bring people here from miles away in response to an advertisement:

J. M. Bostwick & Sons—"Dollar Day has grown to be a sales day that the people look forward to. The manner in which customers responded yesterday, during the year's quietest trade month in the dry goods line, was proof self-evident as far as the Big Store is concerned, of the success of the movement. To be sure we aim to offer bargains on Dollar Day that are worthy of the name, and previous Big Store Dollar Day bargains no doubt 'lingered' with many of the great throng who helped make the day such an immense success."

The Golden Eagle by Louis Levy—"Dollar Day was a phenomenal success at The Golden Eagle; in fact it far exceeded our expectations. Owing to the condition of our store it was impossible to properly wait on all the customers, and if anyone was slightly neglected we wish to apologize."

T. R. Costigan—"Dollar Day, was a big success with us."

Hanley Bros., E. J. Murphy, Mgr.—"We had no Dollar Day bargain to offer but we are satisfied that our advertisement was in excellent company and was given the best publicity."

The Levinson Co.—"Dollar Day at Levinson's was all we expected of it and we believe Dollar Day is a great event."

Hinterschied's—"Our Dollar Day brought us 50 per cent more business than any day this month and we are pleased accordingly."

The Hub Clothing and Shoe Store, by Max M. Meisel—"We are well satisfied with the results of our Dollar Day sale."

Pond & Bailey—"Dollar Day was the best day we had during the month."

R. M. Bostwick & Son, per C. B. Bostwick—"Yesterday was the biggest Dollar Day we ever had."

Chas. S. Putnam—"We sold 100 carpet sweepers, our Dollar Day bargain, making yesterday the best Dollar Day this store ever experienced."

Dollar Day at Howard's store beat all other Dollar Days and the management would like to have a Dollar Day each week.

W. P. Sayles says Dollar Day was better than the last. A good ad, followed up with a good window display of dollar articles and store service made a great success with him.

Dollar Day with Smith's Pharmacy was a success as usual.

New Gas Light company reports a very fair amount of sales for Dollar Day.

E. J. Walker of the Klassen store reports a good day, much better than last year, and would like to have a Dollar Day each month.

Caldow & Snyder Boot Shop—"Larger day than last year and we are better pleased with it."

Jas. Sutherland & Sons—"Dollar Day grows better every year."

The Nichols Company—"More Dollar Bargains sold than last year."

H. M. Keating, Simpson Garment Store—"Dollar Day has been a grand success. While not a new thing with the Merchants of Janesville, this being the third sale—it has had sufficient test to show it has great advantages, for both the merchant and customer. Future Dollar Day Sales will be given a great deal of attention so that it will pay the women of Janesville and vicinity to look forward to those events."

H. M. Dedrick of Dedrick Bros., says "Dollar Day was away ahead of last year."

C. W. Diehl—"Dollar Day is a great event."

Safady Bros. & Sartell—"We did a great business on Dollar Day."

Janesville Floral Co.—"We continue to favor the Dollar Day idea."

Frank Sadler—"We are more than pleased with our Dollar Day sales."

O. D. Bates—"Dollar Day was a new venture for us, but we are satisfied with the business we did and believe Dollar Day a good thing."

Amos Rehberg Co.—"Our Dollar Day customers kept us busy all day long and we did a remarkably large volume of business."

T. P. Burns—"Our Dollar Day business was remarkable in point of sales."

T. J. Ziegler Clothing Co.—"We did an exceptionally good business on Dollar Day."

D. J. Luby & Co.—"We believe that Dollar Day is a great advertisement for Janesville and we enjoyed a large volume of business yesterday."

Frank Douglas—"Dollar Day was fine. We are very much pleased. We sold out completely on most items and after our step ladders were gone we took orders for as many more which will come in soon."

J. H. Burns & Son—"Dollar Day was beyond our expectation."

O. H. Olson—"Very good. In addition to our Dollar bargains we sold an unusually amount of higher priced articles."

Red Cross Pharmacy—"Never better. No other Dollar Day has ever equaled this."

Sheldon Hardware Company—"Better than ever before."

McQue & Buss—"Dollar Day was good. What more can be said."

But it is the keeping everlastingly at it, persistent, consistent kind of publicity that finally worries its way through to success.

Advertising is like food—you cannot eat a meal and hope to get nourishment from it for a week or a month. A single advertisement will not continue to bring you a rush of Business. It takes constant repetition to make any lasting impression on the public mind and to create lasting patronage for your store.

The advertising department of the Gazette consisting of a corps of trained publicity and advertising specialists is always at your service. Outlines for campaigns that will produce definite lasting results; rather than temporary benefits; will be drawn up at your request.

Remember the services of The Gazette advertising department are always at your command and that this service is rendered free of charge.

SAMUEL THE VICTORIOUS LEADER.

(The Story.)

Those were the days in Israel's history. Israel was not only captive to Philistia, but, worse, Israel was captive to the gods of Philistia. Hope and courage were gone. He was known to all Israel because of his continuous residence in the tabernacle at Shiloh from his childhood. The very continuity of his service gave him prestige. Having never wavered, his name was qualified to call others to steadfastness. Since Joshua's day there had been no such lofty personality among the Hebrews. Yet he was no man for military exploits. The weapons of his warfare were not carnal. He awakened the dormant religious sentiment of his people not in an instant, but by a continuous and faithful ministry of twenty years. The same quality of his character, the light of his example went forth to change the corrupt and dark conditions of society. His very life made his ministry a transcendent success. Nowhere else could he have done such a man. Israel could not but assemble in religious convocation. His voice was the voice of God. So the tribes went up to Mizpah, the very place where, scores of years before, he had suffered their overwhelming defeat, and had their palladium, the ark, taken from them. On that high and rocky plateau, the watchtower from which the land was unrolled beneath the feet of a ruler, from the sea to the trans-Jordanic mountains, stood the nation before Jehovah, who had brought them in with such a high hand. A thoroughgoing reformation had preceded the assembly. Israel had sought God with all his heart. He had shrived himself of Baalim and Asherah, and affirmed his purpose of serving God only. The assembly was for the purpose of publicly ratifying this purpose and confirming it with a visible sign. Samuel, the Lord's blameless servant—devoted to him from birth—stood forth a noble type of the mediator yet to come. He presented the people's confessions to God, and made intercession for them. He performed in sight of the people a striking symbolical action, first in a long series of such acts on the part of the people. From an earthen pitcher, filled at a neighboring fountain, and held aloft, he poured the water out. As it fell in crystal drops it well represented the tears of penitence which Israel had already shed. At this sign all the people said, "We have sinned against the Lord." In the very midst of this significant and peaceful service, the ark was brought by the approach of his inveterate enemy in battle array. The Hebrews are faint from fasting, exhausted by the strong emotions, unarmed. In their extremity, and power of God. Samuel keeps right on at the religious services of the hour. He spreads his hands to heaven, and ceases not to suckle lamb, emblem of the nation new-born in righteousness, and burning it entirely on an improvised altar. The smoke of the nation's sacrifice goes up to God in mer by his own cloud from above, out of which his flaming presence and awful voice strike terror into the Philistine heart. The rout is signal. All the defenseless Israelites need to do now is to arm themselves with the weapons the Philistines drop from their nerveless grasp, and pursue them. This they do, the joy of victory, the Giver of victory is not forgotten. The memorial stone with its praiseful legend is set up. And night drops her pall over the slain.

THE TEACHER'S LANTERN.

There is great advantage in the cause of religion from a godly life lived continuously in a community. A Christian gentleman recently died, who for fifty-two years was ruling elder of the Presbyterian Church, and for fifty-two years officially connected with the Northern Bank of Kentucky. His life is a demonstration that there is no incompatibility between service to the Lord and being diligent in business. Though not given to argument, he was a defender of the faith. His silence was eloquent. His life was an argument. The best defense of Christianity is in boots, not in books.

EAT LESS AND TAKE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

Let the children bring your clean washing clothes, free from buttons, hooks and fasteners, to the Gazette office and receive 34c per pound cash.

books. A long, stainless Christian life is a far-reaching trust. In fidelity to this trust not only renders it valuable, but converts it into a powerful weapon against the truth. Not long since twenty young men, Andrew simultaneously from a certain church because one of its most influential members fell from grace. The unwavering disciple alone can infuse that spirit in his fellow Christians. Nations and individuals are near to salvation when they stop beating the bush, and out with it in the explicit terms the Hebrew used, "I have sinned." They were even more explicit than that. They recognized that the inborn wickedness of their sin consisted in its being "against the Lord." If one could see before the transgression, he would be forewarned. The young Joseph did, when, under strong temptation, he cried "How can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?" After sin is committed, not the contemplation of its evil consequences, but the fact that it is done against a holy and good Father, whose law is just and right—this produces the deepest, truest, most permanent compunction. National repentance was the forerunner of national revival, in which the Philistine yoke was cast off, and the sacred memorial of victory was set up and psalms and shouts.

ANALYSIS AND KEY.

Pitiful days; tabernacle removed. Outward sign; inward condition. Israel serving Philistia gods. Hope centers in Samuel. Awakens the people. Not of a sudden: Twenty years. Saline influence of character. Calls to religious assembly. Public ratification of nation's vow. Samuel a mediator. Confesses for nation; makes intercession. Interruption; enemy's approach. Israel defenseless; Samuel's prayer. Cynical answer; enemy routed. The Young People's Devotional

What Will Improve Our Prayer Meetings?

(Laid by the Prayer Meeting Committee.)

"Prayer meeting! Stupid place!" exclaimed a lady, when declining to go. "I hurry home on Friday after work to get to prayer meeting on time," said a workman who was laying a carpet. Much depends on one's point of view and attitude. Looked at as a call and chance to consider spiritual values, an opportunity to commune with the invisible and eternal, to dissociate one's self from the purely material and temporal, putting into it one's best thought and holiest aspiration, irrespective of what is said or sung—such it cannot possibly be. On the contrary, it is the shadow of a rock in a weary land and water from the Pool of Siloam. In its refreshment and recuperation resiliency is acquired. From it one returns to the carp and cart and daily work with an equisette that is not of this world.

AT THE APOLLO.

William Farnum in "The Sign of the Cross."

An impressive feature film production of unusual importance and power is the Famous Players-Paramount five part adaptation of Wilson Barrett's supreme dramatic triumph "The Sign of the Cross," which will be presented at the Apollo next Monday for one day only. The subject is an elaborate version of Wilson Barrett's wonderful popular drama which has stirred the emotions of every civilized race throughout the world for many years.

Comparison, at least as regards settings and scenic effects, must necessarily be instituted between this and other plays previously produced and period and it must be truthfully said that the value of the present production is greatly enhanced by such a comparison, and while it loses nothing in elaboration of detail, it has the advantage of a story which has so firmly established itself in the favor of the public.

The part of Marcus Superbus, the dominant character in the powerful play, is impressively portrayed by William Farnum, one of the foremost actors of classical roles on the American stage, who is eminently fitted for the part in "The Sign of the Cross." The degree of power and emotional appeal of the drama is almost immeasurable, and it should exert a tremendous effect upon the feelings of all audiences that witness it. The subject can be safely termed one of the greatest photo-spectacles ever screened.

A children's matinee will be given at 4:15 Monday.

"Quit Your Kicking My Dog Around," a song very much in vogue last year must have been written with "Peg O' My Heart's" "Mike" in mind, or must have been written by some unkind person in the early life of Michael, the dog actor, with Miss Elsa Ryan, who will be seen at the Myers Theater Monday, March 1.

If there is any one thing that this Airdale-Irish Terrier Deerhound, etc., does have a fit of temperament over it is human feet. His own feet are all right; in fact they are extra good supports, as they proved a very well ago when two of them were run over in New York by a taxicab, with little or no effect. But when it comes to the pedal-extremities of others, that is right where Michael begins to get fussy. Doesn't want them around. Seems to think (if dog's think) that they are all wrong. He may love you to death, all but your feet, and with these he will tolerate them. He insists on sitting slight elevations where he can smile up at you, but if by chance he happens to look down, it is with a growl.

Last season as matinee idol with Elsa Ryan, the canine had many and sundry lessons about this one disturbing element in his make-up. After much scolding and a few whippings, he became docile; but again, with the opening of the new season, Miss Ryan had her troubles, as did other members of the company, and Michael was sent after a thorough schooling in the department of department conducted by Miss Ryan.

Constipation a Penalty of Age

Nothing is so essential to health in advancing age as keeping the bowels open. It makes one feel younger and fresher and forestalls colds, piles, fevers, and other dependent ills.

Cathartics and purgatives are violent and drastic in action and should be avoided. A mild, effective laxative tonic, recommended by physicians and thousands who have used it, is the combination of simple herbs with pepsin sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The price is fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 462 Washington St., Monticello, Ills.

AT MYERS THEATER.

"Potash and Perlmutter."

Harper's Weekly speaks of "Potash and Perlmutter" as a marvellous "joy ride" and during its unprecedented run at the Colma Theater, from which it has just returned, it has been a direct to the Myers Theater on Friday, March 12, nearly a million men and women took that ride and most of them returned for another trip. No other play produced in New York City ever drew so many patrons in that length of time and no play ever created more pure joy by its clean, bright fun.

WATER CONSERVATION HEARING ON MAR. 9TH

Senator Elect Will Oppose Utilization of Horsepower, Once

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Feb. 26.—The joint committee on conservation of the legislature announced today that a further hearing on the water power bills would be held on March 9. This later date was fixed at the suggestion of the United States Senator-elect Paul O. Hastings, who said that he wanted a further opportunity to appear in opposition to these measures. The bill to increase the fees of non-residents of the University of Wisconsin will be given a hearing by the committee on education of the assembly Wednesday afternoon; the committee on municipalities will hold a hearing on the Budlong bill requiring the attendance of conductors at the vestibules of street cars next Wednesday afternoon. The committee on labor has scheduled for hearing all bills that require an employer to state in any advertisement whether he wanted agents for the sale of land will be given a hearing Thursday afternoon by the committee on judiciary.

STATE HEALTH HEAD ARGUES FOR MONEY

Bill to Cut Appropriation $20,000 Finds Opponent in Dr. Harper.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 26.—Dr. C. A. Harper, state health officer, appeared before the state affairs committee of the assembly yesterday afternoon in opposition to the Bradley bill to reduce the appropriation of the state board of health from $40,000 to $20,000. Assemblyman Bradley argued that the expense of this department was increasing too rapidly.

Dr. Harper told the committee that the state was divided into four health districts and over each district was a deputy health officer who gave his entire time to the business of the district. He said that these men gave information to municipal officials on questions of sanitation, water supply and garbage. That they assisted the locality in suppressing communicable diseases. He said that sometimes the local health officer cannot enforce the proper remedy and that the deputy official may be created with saving many lives by going into the field and taking direct charge of the situation.

Keep Your Lungs Strong

This advice is doubly important with the knowledge that every three minutes some one in the United States succumbs to consumption and many refuse to realize they are afflicted until it is too late.

It is after colds or sickness, from overwork, confining duties or when general weakness exists that tubercular germs thrive because the resistive powers of the body are weakened.

Only with fresh air, sunshine and abundant rich blood can one hope to arrest their progress, and the concentrated fats in Scott's Emulsion furnish fuel for rich blood, and its rare nourishment helps strengthen the lungs while it builds up the forces.

If you work indoors, tire easily, feel languid or run-down Scott's Emulsion is the most strengthening food medicine known and is free from alcohol or stupefying drugs. Avoid substitutes.

Small Profit Dealer Merits Your Praise.

The dealer who insists upon quality at the expense of personal gain is a public benefactor. Such a merchant builds a firm foundation which leads to bigger business and greater returns. What greater public benefactors can a town have than unselfish merchants who prefer to take a short profit on their goods and deliver to their customers the best possible value for their money? We believe this city is fortunate in this respect. When one travels about in other cities and towns, comparing merchandise and prices, he is convinced that he ought to be pretty well satisfied with the prices and merchandise he gets at home. "Short profit and bigger sales" is getting to be a modern commercial battle cry. This kind of merchandising is distinctly different to the old kind which insisted that a storekeeper had the right to put his prices up as far as he could—and still be able to make sales.

Insist Upon Fair Prices
Then a few of "wise heads" in the profession of retail merchandising saw that customers were learning too much about merchandise and about the prices which should be paid to accept inflated prices without objection. They saw that merchandising through inflated profit was a "short cut to the rapid decline of a business."

They figured this way: "Isn't it better to make two-thirds as much money and remain in business five times as long?" It is not a matter of remaining in business merely five times as long—it is a certainty that the merchant who follows this policy is going to remain in business indefinitely.

Back of every store there is a plan. This plan is usually the result of an individual. The individual who can see the farthest ahead, who can make up his mind first that the best way to remain in business and make the most money is to always deal from his customer's viewpoint, is the man who usually gains a lap or two on his competitors.

Golden Rule For Customers
Many begin immediately to follow the leader, giving the same quality of merchandise and at the same reduced prices. Others conclude that the only way to reduce the price is to cheapen the merchandise. Others hang on in the old way—and grow smaller and more dusty. This doing business from the customer's viewpoint is a wonderful thing for the retailer. A great retailer once said:

"When I was a young man and was working as a clerk I would always imagine myself standing out where the customer was. I talked from what I knew to be the viewpoint of the customer. Since I have gone into business for myself I have followed this policy. I have instructed all of my clerks to do the same."

We know of no better merchandising advice than this. The merchant has a superior knowledge of the goods he sells, of course. He knows what they will do and he knows how far he can go in praising them. There are many clerks and business men who use these words for almost anything they are selling. "This is wonderful value for the money."

Tell Him Whole Truth
How much better to take the customer into your confidence. Tell him everything which can be known about this merchandise or at least anything which you know yourself. The best rule to follow, especially when buying men's clothes is to deal with a merchant in whom you have confidence. All men know that they can buy a cheap suit or they can pay a good deal of money for a suit. Probably all men also know that unless they buy from a reliable house they are not absolutely certain but that they get a cheap suit even if they pay a good deal of money for it.

There is on record a story of a very successful man who ordered a new suit to wear on a trip which he was making to New York City. He wanted a good suit. He presumed that he was paying $50 for it. When the suit arrived, was told by the tailor that it was a very high class suit. He wore it to New York and home again when he was informed by the tailor who happened to be a very good friend of his, that the suit had actually cost $8.65.

Square Dealing Best Rule
This tailor, had he wanted to do so, could have charged $50 for the suit and unquestionably the bill would have been paid, but in a short time, in fact, the first time it was worn, the suit would have demonstrated to the wearer that it was not worth $50 or anything like it. The faith in the tailor would have been shaken. Just how long his business would have lasted nobody can tell. Certainly not long.

Lucky is the merchant who has the force of will to tell a customer anything that is to be known about merchandise. Also to push the best goods even when the profit is short, and insist upon quality in everything. Such a merchant wins the respect of his own customers as well as of the people from whom he buys his goods. Wholesalers soon learn what such a merchant insists upon and he gets it.

Give Honor Where Due
Residents of any city should take cognizance of the man who insists upon giving them a dollar's worth of merchandise whenever 100 cents is spent. He is a real fellow townsman. A fellow citizen. A man to whom honor is due. A man who is a benefactor. A benefactor because he benefits the great mass. He benefits you and he benefits me. He benefits the little girl in the pink gingham dress. His touch is felt every place. He is the man who is distributing a quarter here and a dollar there—always taking it out of his own income.

In time he should receive the thanks, the homage and the support of the community.

Good Way to Induce Sleep.
Those who persist in going over in their minds the affairs of the day should sip a cup of warm water slowly or a glass of warm milk before going to bed.

Give Credit

YES, indeed, give credit, give honor — and give your patronage to the merchant who cuts his own profit to give you the highest quality of tailoring.

We, an outside Company, are making a big announcement here today. This announcement is to tell you of a merchant right here among you who insist upon the highest quality men's tailored-to-measure clothes even though the making of these clothes returns him only a small profit.

Our tailoring was chosen because the quality was there. This home merchant of yours preferred to give you the services of our high salaried tailors—to make made-to-measure clothes with which you would be satisfied and on which he would make only a little profit.

So give credit to the dealer who injures his own bank account in order to give you the best.

A dealer cannot make a long profit on the tailoring we do for him because he pays too much for the goods and the tailoring.

$16.50 and up

Fine made-to-measure clothes simply cannot be made for less. There is only one place for the loss to fall—on the retail dealer.

We felt that every resident of this city should know the facts as stated here.

Sometimes a word from out-of town helps to place honor and credit where these things belong.

F. J. WURMS

now showing exclusively, the entire range of many hundreds of the latest imported and domestic fabrics and have secured exclusively in this city the services of the world-renowned Continental Tailors.

The Continental Tailors have been designing and making suits and overcoats tailored-to-your-measure since 1871—or for 44 years.

The Continental Tailors use nothing but pure wool fabrics in every suit. Every fabric guaranteed.

A fit is guaranteed in every case. A fit which pleases the dealer who takes your measure is not enough. You must be pleased.

Even if the dealer says your suit is right you do not keep the suit unless you think it is right.

In Continental clothes the hidden parts are those parts which receive the most attention. Only the finest journeyman tailors, that have specialized on hand needle work are employed. The linings, for instance, in every Continental suit will outwear the suit itself. As much care is taken with the seams inside as with the seams outside.

Continental fabrics are cold water shrunk before cutting. Go into the store today who deserves your trade and ask him to explain it to you.

Remember, you get the high price tailoring service at the price that a very ordinary suit would cost because this store is willing to cut its profit. It merits your patronage.

Here are the fabrics and all the new spring styles. Go in and see them. Order your suit now and it is ready in 5 days.
